

35th City Council District

Olanike T. Alabi (D)

My name is Olanike Alabi and I'm a candidate for the New York City Council — 35th District. Over the past several months, I've spent my time listening to the needs, concerns and challenges of so many in our community. My campaign is about ideas and issues that are important to all of us. The next City Council must be strong on education, affordable housing, seniors, healthcare, the environment, transportation, small businesses, and economic and social justice. That's why I'm running. As a life-long resident of the 35th Council District who is dedicated to public service, I want to continue to advocate for and improve the quality of life in our community and ensure PROGRESS for ALL by electing Leadership with a Proven Track Record and that you Can Trust. There are many in our community in search of good schools, an affordable and safe place to live, employment that will provide a living wage, access to a quality healthcare and transportation system, infrastructure investment and so much more. Thus far, my campaign has already been endorsed by several unions, clergy and community leaders and there's more to come! While I'm proud of my support, for me — it's not necessarily about endorsements, but rather winning over the hearts and minds of those I wish to serve. In the weeks to come, you will hear more about the campaign. Please join me as I take this next leap of faith!
